Thesubscriber offers for safe the p lantation whereon henow resides, containing 230 acres of fertile land, well adapted to the production of Indian Corn, rye, oats and tobacco, of fine quality, and susceptible of speedy improvement by clover and plaister. There is on the premises, besides the necessary out buildings, a convenient dwelling house, erected within the last twenty years, & sivated on a conspicuous eminence, commanding an extensive and heautifully wariegated prospect of the surrounding neighbourhood, and the Chesapeake Bay. This place is well watered, and healthy, lying within a convenient distance of the Patuxent river and bay, affording all the advantages, without any of the disadvantages, of contiguity to either. Withis two miles, over a good road, is a public landing on thebay, presenting a facility of regular and constant intercourse with Baltimore, by means of presenting a facility of regular and constant intercourse with Baltimore, by means of two packets which ply weekly on that route It has also the advantage of Herring Creek Curch & several other places of public worshiph in its immediate vicinity. A more minute description is deemed unnecessary, as personsinclined to purchase will undoubtedly view it. Possession was behan immediately, or on the expiration of the year at the option of the purchase
